

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Volume One

	Page
Summary of Proposals	vii
Chapter 1: THE NEED FOR TAX REFORM: BACK TO BASICS	1
The Federal Income Tax in 1954	2
The Decline in Simplicity	3
Erosion of the Tax Base	4
Economic Distortions	4
Inequities	5
Unfair Treatment of the Family	5
Inflation and the Income Tax	6
The Rise of Tax Shelters	6
The Decline in Taxpayer Morale	9
Needed: Taxes That are Broad-based, Simple, and Fair	11
 Chapter 2: GOALS OF FUNDAMENTAL TAX REFORM	 13
Economic Neutrality	13
Lower Tax Rates	13
Revenue Neutrality	14
Equal Treatment of Equals	14
Fairness for Families	14
Fairness Across Income Classes	14
Simplicity	15
Perceived Fairness	16
An Inflation-Proof Tax Law	17
Neutrality Toward Business Form	18
Economic Growth	18
Trade-Offs	18
Fair and Orderly Transition	19
Addendum: Implications for Spending	20
 Chapter 3: THE FOUR OPTIONS	 21
I. The Pure Flat Tax	21
A. Advantages of the Flat Tax	21
B. Distributional Inequity of the Pure Flat Tax	21
II. Reconciliation: The Modified Flat Tax	23
A. Questions Common to Income and Consumed Income Tax	25
B. Advantages of a Comprehensive Measure of Income	25
C. Distributional Neutrality	26
D. Issues in Income Measurement	26

	Page
E. Disparities in Effective Tax Rates	27
F. Simplification	28
III. Consumed Income Tax	30
A. Administrative Advantages	30
B. Economic Advantages	31
C. Transition Problems	31
D. Perception Problems	32
E. Complexity for Individuals	32
F. The Dilemma of Gifts and Bequests	33
G. International Aspects	33
IV. Sales Tax	33
Chapter 4: SUMMARY OF TREASURY DEPARTMENT PROPOSALS AND THEIR EFFECTS	37
I. The Proposals in Brief	37
A. Individuals	37
B. Taxation of Capital and Business Income	40
C. Economic Effects	42
D. Transition	43
II. Effects on Revenues	44
III. Effects on Income Distribution and Incentives	46
APPENDIX 4-A: Explanation of Concept of Economic Income Used in Distribution Tables	57
APPENDIX 4-B: Provisions Included in the Distributional Analysis in Tables 4-3 and 4-4	61
Chapter 5: INCOME TAX REFORM AND SIMPLIFICATION FOR INDIVIDUALS AND FAMILIES	63
I. Summary	63
II. Rate Reduction	63
III. Fairness for Families	66
IV. Fair and Neutral Taxation	73
A. Excluded Sources of Income	73
1. Fringe Benefits	73
2. Retirement Savings	74
3. Wage Replacements	75
4. Scholarships and Fellowships	76
5. Capital Gains	76
6. Interest Indexing	77
7. Dividends Received Exclusion	77
B. Preferred Uses of Income	77
1. State and Local Taxes	78
2. Charitable Contributions	81
3. Interest Expense	83
4. Simplification Benefits	83

	Page
C. Abuses	84
1. Mixed Personal and Business Expenses	84
2. Income Shifting	85
IV. Simplification	86
A. A Return-Free System	86
B. Other Simplification for Individuals	86
V. Reducing Noncompliance	87
A. The Tax Gap	87
B. Amnesties	91
APPENDIX 5-A: List of Proposed Reforms: Income Tax Reform and Simplification for Individuals	93
Chapter 6: BASIC TAXATION OF CAPITAL AND BUSINESS INCOME	97
I. Summary	97
II. Lower Corporate Tax Rates	97
III. Taxing Real Economic Income	98
A. Capital Gains	100
B. Capital Consumption Allowances	105
C. Inventories	109
D. Indexing Interest	111
IV. Retirement Savings	116
V. Neutrality Toward Form of Business Organization	117
A. Relief for Double Taxation of Dividends	118
B. Tax Treatment of Large Partnerships	120
APPENDIX 6-A: List of Proposed Reforms: Basic Taxation of Capital and Business Income	123
Chapter 7: INDUSTRIES - SPECIFIC SUBSIDIES, TAX SHELTERS, AND OTHER TAX ISSUES	125
I. Introduction	125
II. General Issues of Income Measurement	126
A. Multiperiod Production	126
B. Use of Cash Method of Accounting	128
C. Bad Debt Deductions	129
D. Installment Sales	129
E. Corporate Minimum Tax	130
III. Subsidies for Specific Industries	130
A. Energy and Other Minerals	130
B. Financial Institutions	132
C. Debt of State and Local Governments	135
D. Special Rules	137
IV. Further Curtailment of Tax Shelters	138
A. Limiting Interest Deductions	140
B. At-Risk Rules	141
V. International Issues	142

	Page
VI. Other Tax Issues	144
A. Transfer Taxation	144
B. Penalties	146
C. Expiring Provisions	146
D. Social Security Issues	146
E. Items Not Included in the Tax Reform Proposal	147
APPENDIX 7-A: List of Proposed Reforms: Industry-Specific Subsidies, Tax Shelters and Other Tax Issues	149
Chapter 8: COMPARISON WITH OTHER TAX REFORM PLANS	153
I. Individual Income Tax	154
A. Income Tax Rates	154
B. Fairness for Families	154
C. Fair and Neutral Taxation	156
1. Excluded Sources of Income	156
2. Preferred Uses of Income	157
D. Tax Abuses	158
E. Simplification	158
1. The Return-Free System	159
2. Other Simplification	158
II. Basic Taxation of Business and Capital Income	159
A. Corporate Tax Rates	159
B. Investment Tax Credit	160
C. Income Measurement: Inflation Adjustment	160
D. Retirement Savings	161
E. Neutrality Toward Form of Business Organization	162
III. Industry - Specific Subsidies, Tax Shelters, and Other Tax Issues	163
A. General Issues of Income Measurement	163
B. Subsidies to Specific Industries	164
1. Energy and Natural Resources	164
2. Financial Institutions	165
3. Insurance Investment Income	165
4. State and Local Debt and Investments	165
5. Other Specific Subsidies	166
C. Further Curtailment of Tax Shelters	166
D. International Issues	166
IV. Other Tax Issues	167
A. Taxation of Transfers	167
B. Expiring Provisions	168
APPENDIX 8-A: Comparison of Treasury Proposal with Congressional Tax Reform Bills	169
APPENDIX 8-B: Summary of Tax Reform Bills Introduced During the 98th Congress	185

	Page
Chapter 9: CONSUMED INCOME TAX	191
I. Consumed Income Tax Base, Rates, and Administration	192
A. The Tax Base	192
B. Tax Rates	194
C. Administration	194
II. Advantages of A Consumed Income Tax	195
A. Administrative Advantages	195
B. Economic Advantages	198
C. Equity Advantages	199
III. Disadvantages of a Consumed Income Tax	200
A. Administrative Disadvantages	200
B. Economic Disadvantages	205
C. Equity Disadvantages	209
D. Transition Problems	210
IV. Conclusions	211
Chapter 10: VALUE-ADDED TAX AND RETAIL SALES TAX	213
I. Introduction	213
II. Alternative Forms of Sales Tax	213
A. Retail Sales Tax	213
B. Value-Added Tax	214
C. Advantages of Uniform Rates	216
D. Sales Taxes Unworthy of Consideration	217
III. Pros and Cons of a National Sales Tax	219
A. Advantages of a Sales Tax	219
B. Disadvantages of a Sales Tax	220
1. Growth of Government	220
2. Regressivity	221
3. Effect on Prices	221
4. Administrative Costs	221
5. Federal Pre-Emption	221
IV. Relevance of the European Experience	222
V. Tax Base and Revenue Potential	222
VI. Reducing Regressivity	223
VII. Value-Added Tax versus Retail Sales Tax	224
VIII. Implementation	226
IX. Conclusions	226
APPENDIX A: Effective Dates and Transition Rules	229
APPENDIX B: Fundamental Tax Reform: Change in Receipts by Source	245
APPENDIX C: Summary of International Comparisons	255

TABLES

1-1	How Tax Shelter Losses Reduce Gross Income	10
3-1	Percentage Distributions of Individual Income Tax Liability Under Current Law, Pure Flat Tax and the Treasury Department Proposal, by Economic Income Class of Families	22
3-2	Changes in Tax Resulting from a Pure Flat Tax and the Treasury Department Proposal Distributed by Family Economic Income Class	24
3-3	Illustration of Disparities in Effective Tax Rates	29
4-1	Proposed Tax Rates for 1986	38
4-2	Unified Budget Receipts	45
4-3	Distribution of Adjusted Gross Income, Taxable Income, Income Tax, and Tax Rates Under Present Law and Under Tax Reform Proposal	47
4-4	Distributio of Families by Change in Tax as a Percent of Income Comparing the Tax Reform Proposal with 1986 Present Law	54
4A-1	Economic Income Equals	59
5-1	Proposed Tax Rate Schedule and 1986 Current Law Rate Schedules	65
5-2	Comparision of Personal Exemptions and Zero Bracket Amounts Under Current Law and Treasury Proposal	67
5-3	Comparision of the Poverty Threshold and the Tax Free Level of Income Under Current Law and the Treasury Proposal	70
5-4	Floors for Deductions on Individual Income Tax Returns	79
5-5	Income Tax Gap -- 1981	88
6-1	Effective Tax Rates on Realized Capital Gains Under Current Law for 50 Percent Bracket Taxpayer with Different Real Rate of Return Assumptions	103

	Page
6-2	Effective Tax Rates on Equity-Financed Investments with Various Rates of Inflation For a 46 Percent Taxpayer Under Current Law	107
6-3	Effective Tax Rates on Equity Finance Investments in Equipment and Structures by Industry with Various Rates of Inflation for a 46 Percent Taxpayer Under Current Law	108
6-4	Effective Corporate and Personal Income Tax Rates on Equity Financed Investment	110
6-5	Effective Corporate Income Tax Rates	112
6-6	Inventories as Percent of Total Physical Assets and Depreciable Assets	113
6-7	Fractional Exclusion Rate Table	115
7-1	Effective Tax Rate on Income Deferred by a 50 Percent Taxpayer for Different Deferral Periods and Interest Rates	127
10-1	Illustration of a Retail Sales Tax and a Value-Added Tax	215
A-1	Effective Dates and Transition Rules	233
C-1	Summary Comparision of Selected Aspects of Different Countries' Tax Systems	258

FIGURES

1-1	Growth in Partnerships, 1965-1982	8
4-1	Average Rates of Tax on Family Economic Income Under Current Law and the Proposal	48
4-2	Percent Change in Tax Under the Proposal by Family Economic Income	49
4-3	Marginal Rates of Tax Under Current Law and the Proposal	51
4-4	Percentage Change in Taxable Income Resulting From the Treasury Proposal	52
4-5	Families With Tax Change as a Percent of All Families by Family Economic Income	55
4A-1	Distribution of Tax Returns by Adjusted Gross Income Class and Families by Economic Income Class	60
5-1	Comparison of Tax Free Income Levels Under Current Law and Under the Proposal -- For Taxpayers Under Age 65	68
5-2	Comparison of Tax Free Income Levels Under Current Law (1986) and Under the Proposal -- For Taxpayers Under and Over Age 65	72
7-1	Volume of Long Term Tax-Exempt Bonds Issued in 1983	136
9-1	Lifetime Pattern of Income and Consumption (Average Income and Consumption, Distributed by Age of Family Head)	207